PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Children's Performing Arts Theatre Company

June 2025 - Present

Education & Artistic Director

Oversees the artistic development of the company, seeks and hires directors/choreographers/music directors, teaching artists; serves as line producer for several productions, while collaborating directly with the Managing Director on upholding a yearly operating budget of over half-a-million dollars, prepares monthly reports for the Board Of Directors, and directs one to two productions in the Main-Stage lineup.

Accomplishments:

- Led the company through a major fiscal, community and staffing transitional period, increasing engagement in all areas of programming and offerings.
- Represented CPA in several Executive Leader mixers, engagements, and community connection events, while working directly with patrons, donors and a CRM database.
- Introduced the "Art Of Youth Theatre Initiative" which supports a growth-centered educational approach while advancing the future direction of CPA's programming, including expanding access through the addition of a Theatre Outreach Performing in Schools (TOPS) program in Season 21, strengthening teaching quality with a required professional development retreat for summer camp artists, and providing clear instructional frameworks that balance consistency with creative flexibility.
- Created a new branch of Children's Performing Arts - "Young Professionals Summer Stock", which is a yearly rigorous, professional theatre training intensive designed for actors ages 16–25. Each summer, participants are accepted into the program via an intense audition process. Once accepted, they will engage in high-level performance training alongside industry professionals, building both their craft and career readiness with weekly one-on-one vocal coaching, specialized workshops in vocal health, self-taping, and portfolio development, dance intensives, scene study, and professional headshots.
- Introduced the "CPA Conservatory" which offers Acting, Singing and Dance lessons to the White Bear Lake, Hugo, Centerville, and North St. Paul areas, employing three teaching artists onto the roster.
